Your wedding day will undoubtedly be one of the happiest, most exciting days of your life. The fulfilment of all your dreams and many months careful planning.

In choosing The Auction House for your wedding, the scene is set for a very special and memorable occasion. A stunning venue where the professionalism of its Weddings Consultancy Team perfectly complements the elegance of the location. Our vision of The Auction House is based around a series of simple yet defining concepts.

We erased rational thinking and normal conventions and instead, motivated by our passions, created a venue we wanted – one that bears our mark of attention to detail. We want every event to be remembered, so have designed a place where you will feel a real emotional connection.

The brainchild of one of Europe's most in-demand designers David Wells. The décor exudes glamour, style and sophistication. With its eclectic fusion of Empire, Rococo and contemporary design, you'll find surprises around every corner.
